AGENCY/DEPT	CUSTODIAN/CONTACT	NOTES
Alabama Department of Human Resources	larry.lynn@dhr.alabama.gov	Received a letter from Larry Lynn dated 02/14/2015 indicating DHR requires a subpoena and court order to produce records. He also notes that an in camera review of the records will be required.
NBC News 12 WFSA Media Coverage	Scott Duff, News Director 12 East Delano Avenue Montgomery, AL 36105 (334) 288-1212 http://www.wsfa.com/	A subpoena should be addressed to Scott Duff, News Director.
Montgomery Advertiser Media Coverage	Custodian of Records 425 Molton Street Montgomery, AL 36104 (334) 262-1611 http://www.montgomeryadvertiser.com/	Ten news items mentioning Mr. Woodley did not appear in the paper. These entries contained the phrase “posted by” before listing an author on Lexis, were posted only to the Advertiser’s website. They require a subpoena to Custodian of Records, make it clear in the subpoena that we are looking for online copy but that we would like a copy in print and certified.
Escambia County Jail Marvin’s Records	Escambia County Jail 316 Court Street Brewton, AL 36426	We need a subpoena directed to Col. Jack Johnson.

VC and MW attended junior high together but had not seen each other in years. They crossed paths at the BP and exchanged phone numbers. VC has seen MW around drugs in the past but never saw him with a gun. VC heard that MW shot someone when he was in junior high school and went to prison for it.	Attended Laurelhurst Junior High School together.
September 12
???	MW called VC and said he wanted to hang out. VC could hear that MW was with some women and suggested that they meet him and his girlfriend when he got off work. He gave MW directions to his office.		MW called VC while he was at work and left a message. VC returned the call and MW identified himself as “Yo.” MW told VC that he was on his way to to see VC. VC gave MW directions to his office and MW had to sit in a lot of traffic because he was coming from the mall, which is on the other side of town.
1:30pm		MW called VC while he was at work and left a message. VC didn’t know who had called because he didn’t recognize the number, but he returned the call and MW answered. MW said he was driving on I-65 with two girls and that he was on his way to come visit VC.
		MW called VC to tell him that he’d arrived in Birmingham. VC was still at work and told MW this. MW said they were just leaving the mall. VC provided directions to his office. MW called again to tell VC that they were stuck in traffic and asked for an alternate route. VC advised him to just wait out the traffic.	When MW got to VC’s office, VC came out and told him to wait because VC’s girlfriend had not yet arrived. MW was in a white Toyota Corolla with two women. VC went back inside his office.

Re: Summary of GDOC Mental Health Records (1992-2007)
Date: Last updated 2012.01.30

DATE	MEDICATIONS	SUMMARY
December 1992	None	Initial psychological assessment conducted on December 2, 1992, by Dr. Ilene Schroeder, Ph.D., who found him to be “adjusting adequately.” She described him as “highly verbal and relatively intelligent,” and said that she saw “no signs of any psychological distress that would be beyond what one would expect of somebody new to this situation.” [1]
July 1994	None	Individual psychotherapy session conducted by Dr. Schroeder on July 20, 1994; she found him “oriented in all spheres,” that his “mood and affect were appropriate,” and that he “expressed no suicidal or homicidal ideation” and “shows no sign of a major disorder of thought or mood.” [2]
August 1994	None	An individual psychotherapy session conducted by Dr. Schroeder on August 3, 1994; her assessment was the same as on July 20, 1994. [3] Dr. Schroeder attempted to conduct a second individual psychotherapy session with [REDACTED] on August 17, 1994, but he declined to come out and speak with her. [4]
September 1994	None	On September 7, 1994, [REDACTED] declined to come out and speak to Dr. Schroeder for an individual psychotherapy session for the second time in a row. She intended to write him a note letting him know that continued contact will be up to him from then on. [5] On September 14, [REDACTED] “self-referred” himself for a session with Dr. Schroeder; she noted that he is “disturbed by personal history may have contributed to [his] current circumstances” and that it “might affect future behavior and therefore repeat ass[aultive]/aggressive actions.” As to his diagnosis, Dr. Schroeder indicated Axis I “799.90 deferred” and Axis II “301.70 Antisocial.” [6-7]
May 1995	None	On May 31, 1995, Dr. Schroeder reported that she was asked to meet with [REDACTED] and assess his condition by the mental health staff at the request of the G-house staff, but they decided instead to keep [REDACTED] in his cell and wait for Dr. Bennett to conduct an assessment “on Monday,” because [REDACTED] “becomes erratic and violent in his behavior when out of his cell but seems to be able to maintain some degree of calmness and in his
